DR. KENNETH STEIN,
EMORY UNIVERSITY

LAW DAY

PROFESSOR ANNE EMANUEL, GSU

“The Long and the Short of the Arab Upheavals:
the Impact on the US and the Middle East”

“Elbert Parr Tuttle:
Chief Jurist of the Civil Rights Revolution”

Dr. Kenneth W. Stein is the William E. Schatten Professor of Contemporary Middle Eastern History, Political Science and Israeli Studies at Emory University in Atlanta, Georgia.

Stein has numerous publications. His scholarly contributions have focused on American foreign policy, inter-Arab politics, the Arab-Israeli conflict and the negotiating process. His publications have appeared in Arabic, French, German, Hebrew and Spanish. He has taught courses focusing on the Middle East in the 20th Century, American Foreign Policy toward the region, the Arab-Israeli conflict, Palestinian social history, and modern Israel.

Stein is a frequent contributor to the national and international media. For three years, 1980-1983 he was moderator of a Georgia Public Television program, World in Review. He is the recipient of the highest awards at Emory for internationalizing the curriculum, life-long student mentorship, and excellence in undergraduate teaching. He is the founding Director of the Emory Institute for the Study of Modern Israel.

Stein received his BA degree from Franklin and Marshall College, Masters in Middle Eastern History and Near Eastern Literatures and Languages, and a doctorate in modern Middle Eastern History from The University of Michigan. He studied at The Hebrew University of Jerusalem and began his academic career at Emory in January 1977.

Stein and his wife Lynn have three daughters-in-law, three sons, and two grandsons.

KIWANIS ONE DAY

On Saturday, April 21, we are participating in the Atlanta Downtown Neighborhood Association (ADNA) Downtown Neighborhood Cleanup from 8:30am to noon. Meet in the parking lot at the corner of Broad and Trinity, which is accessible from Five Points and Garnett MARTA stations. There will be limited free parking available in the lot for volunteers who must drive (spaces 8-14 and 19-28) but use of MARTA is highly encouraged. The clean-up will take place rain or shine so participants should dress appropriately with comfortable clothes and shoes. Bring water in a refillable bottle and work gloves, if you have them. All participants are invited to gather at Elliott Street Pub after the clean-up. Email Fontaine Huey to RSVP at fhuey@atlantabotanicalgarden.org.

DID YOU KNOW???

So many of our club members volunteer on committees and service projects. Did you know that the KI website has a wealth of information and resources to help with all of our committees – from those that work with you to those that need to do brochures or need logos! Just visit www.kiwanis.org and click on “Member Resources” tab and you will find all kinds of forms, templates, logos, etc.
