

Grief and Crisis Counseling

February 13, 2015

9-3

Topics to be covered during training:

Principles of Grief
Helping the Grieving Child in School
Tools for Dealing with Grieving Students
The Bill of Rights for Grieving Teens
Learning to Listen
Help for School Administrators
Major Crisis and Complex Situations

Presenters Bio's

Cheryl Carswell is a graduate of Troy University with a Masters' degree in Psychology and Counseling and is a Licensed Professional Counselor and a Certified Professional Counselors Supervisor. She became a Professor of Psychology for numerous universities in the State of Georgia and has served as a lead recruiter for Troy University for the South East Region of the United States. She is the founder and director of Georgia Family Crisis Solutions, Inc. and counsels families and individuals with mental health issues. She is co-owner of Mandalay Plantation, LLC and Channeled Paths, Inc., a non-profit company to support at risk youth, which offers free counseling to uninsured students. She is a member of the board of directors for the Columbia County Board of Health. She is certified as a Civil Mediator, Arbitrator and Domestic Relations Mediator for the State of Georgia. She serves as a Guardian ad Litem for the State of Georgia.

Phillip Stockard holds dual Masters Degrees in psychology and counseling and a second Masters also from Eastern Michigan University and Troy University. He was a site director and Professor of Psychology for Troy University. He is a retired teacher and principal of Jackson alternative public school program. He was Founder and Co-commissioner of Michigan Alternative Athletic Association. He was the founder and director of Jackson Area Youth Options a grant funded After School at Risk Youth Program. He is a partner, a Glasser therapist and assistant director of Georgia Family Crisis Solutions, Inc. He is certified as a Civil and Domestic Relations Mediator for the State of Georgia. He serves as a Guardian ad Litem for the State of Georgia. He is co-owner of Mandalay Plantation, LLC and Channeled Paths, Inc., a non-profit company to support at risk youth, which offers free counseling for uninsured students.